Announcement by PwC Singapore

Singapore, 11 July 2018 – We are proud to welcome Ms Rachel Eng who will be joining a Singapore law firm that is part of the PwC global legal network.

“We are pleased to welcome Rachel to our PwC global legal network firm, which focuses primarily on legal services adjacent to PwC’s core services. I foresee that we will have opportunities to continue working with WongPartnership in areas outside our core capabilities,” said Yeoh Oon Jin, Executive Chairman, PwC Singapore.

WongPartnership’s Managing Partner, Mr Ng Wai King said, “We are grateful to Rachel for her many contributions to the firm over the years. Rachel will be missed but we can understand her desire to explore other opportunities outside WongPartnership. We wish her well in her new role.”

“We have a strong working relationship with PwC Singapore and have been involved in many of their initiatives including the merger of Pricewaterhouse and Coopers & Lybrand in 1998. Our collaboration will continue going forward. We are sad to see Rachel leave us but we are happy to have her join an institution that has been a friend of WongPartnership for many years,” said Mr Alvin Yeo, Chairman and Senior Partner of WongPartnership.
