SINGAPORE, 3 July 2017 - PwC today announced the admission of 12 new partners to the network in Singapore.

As a global network, PwC continually aims to create value for the business community by leveraging the power of our people to enhance innovation and creativity.

Said Yeoh Oon Jin, Executive Chairman, PwC Singapore on the new appointments:

“The admission of these new partners further enhances our ability to deliver new and innovative solutions to address the evolving needs of our clients. The new partners bring with them different ideas, expertise and perspectives to help us deliver on our purpose and achieve our future goals.

“I am confident that the wide range of experiences, skills and backgrounds of these new partners will enhance the value we can create for our clients and in the marketplace.”
